ANNOUNCEMENTS

Carlo Rubbia, Nobel Prize in Physics \(1984\) presented a muon collider based on the ESS proton linac, during the XVIII International Workshop on Neutrino Telescopes in Venice, 18-22 March 2019: <https://t.co/6C2fbsyVzo>

A CERN Council Open Symposium on the Upgrade of European Strategy for Particle Physics will be held 13-16 May 2019 in Granada, Spain:
<https://cafpe.ugr.es/epps2019/>
Registration deadline: 15/04/2019 to which ESSnuSB has submitted a 10 pages document. It is important that as many as possible of us attend this symposium and take part in the discussions, arguing in favor of our ESSnuSB project.

- The ESSnUSB forum allows project participants to post questions and follow exchanges about specific subjects such as: Management, Linac, Accumulator, Target Station... To access it, please register at: <http://essnusb.eu/phpBB/>. After validation of your request, you will be able to access the forum.

- To facilitate the exchange within the WPs, the use of pre-determined e-mailing lists is strongly recommended. This allow to keep track of exchanges within the WP or any other management structure. Those lists are available on the Forum.
